DISTRIBUTION OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

A. Memorandum of Distribution. I may leave a memorandum or list, signed by me, with this Last Will and Testament directing the disposition of certain items of my tangible personal property. Any such memorandum or list is incorporated in this Will by this reference in accordance with Section 64.2-_____ of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended. If such a memorandum or list is found, I ask my Executor to abide by it. If such a memorandum or list is not found within thirty (30) days of my Executor's qualification on my estate, it should be presumed that no such list exists.

B. Distribution of Remaining Tangible Personal Property. To the extent items of my tangible personal property are not otherwise specifically and effectively bequeathed herein or in such memorandum or list made by me, my my Executor shall distribute in kind items of my tangible personal property to my _____, if _____ survives me, or if _____ does not survive me, to my _____, _____, _____ and _____ in shares as equal as reasonably possible, per stirpes . Any items not distributed in kind shall be sold and the net proceeds added to my residuary estate. Any remaining items shall be donated to charity or disposed of as my Executor deems appropriate.

C. Distribution to Minor Beneficiary. The receipt of the custodian of the person of any minor child beneficiary shall constitute a full acquittance to my Executor as regards such beneficiary child's share of this bequest, and such custodian shall not be required to give bond or qualify as guardian in any Court for this purpose.

D. Packing and Shipping. I direct that all the costs of packing, shipping, insurance and other charges incident to the distribution of any tangible personal property herein, shall be paid by my Executor out of the principal of my residuary estate with no right of reimbursement from any recipient of any such property.
