

Instructions for Form W-7

(Rev. September 2016)

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-7 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/w7.

What's New

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is taking steps to strengthen and protect the integrity of the process for issuing the individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN).

Expiration and renewal of ITINs. ITINs that haven't been included on a U.S. federal tax return at least once in the last three consecutive tax years will expire. In addition, ITINs that were assigned before 2013 will expire according to an annual schedule based on the middle digits of the ITIN. The middle digits refer to the fourth and fifth positions of the ITIN. For example, the middle digits for 9xx-78-xxxx are "78." Expired ITINs must be renewed in order to avoid delays in processing your tax return. For more information, see When To Apply, later, or visit www.irs.gov/itin.

ITINs not used in the last three consecutive tax years. If your ITIN wasn't included on a U.S. federal tax return at least once for tax years 2013, 2014, or 2015, your ITIN will expire on December 31, 2016. You need to take action to renew it if it'll be included on a U.S. federal tax return. See When To Apply, later, for more information.

ITINs with the middle digits "78" and "79." If your ITIN's middle digits (the fourth and fifth positions) are "78" or "79," your ITIN will remain in effect until January 1, 2017. You need to take action to renew it if it'll be included on a U.S. federal tax return. See When To Apply, later, for more information.

The passport is no longer a stand-alone document for certain dependents if no date of entry into the United States is present. Effective October 1, 2016, a passport that doesn't have a date of entry will no longer be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for certain dependents. See Proof of U.S. residency for applicants who are dependents under Supporting Documentation Requirements, later, for more information.

Certified Acceptance Agents (CAA) can now verify certain documentation for dependents. Certified Acceptance Agents (CAA) can now verify documentation for dependents. This documentation is limited to passports and birth certificates only. See Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA) under Where To Apply, later, for more information.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form W-7 for the following purposes.

- To apply for an ITIN. An ITIN is a nine-digit number issued by the IRS to individuals who are required for federal tax purposes to have a U.S. taxpayer identification number but who don't have and aren't eligible to get a social security number (SSN).
- To renew an ITIN. An ITIN only needs to be renewed if it will be included on a U.S. federal tax return and it is expiring or has expired. See How To Apply, later, for more information on how to renew your ITIN.

If your ITIN is only used on information returns filed with the IRS by third parties, you don't have to renew your ITIN, even if the ITIN has expired for purposes of filing a U.S. federal tax return. However, in the future, if you file an income tax return, you will need to renew your ITIN at that time.

The ITIN is for federal tax purposes only. An ITIN doesn't entitle you to social security benefits and doesn't change your immigration status or your right to work in the United States. Also, individuals filing tax returns using an ITIN aren't eligible for the earned income credit (EIC).

Social security numbers. Don't complete Form W-7 if you have an SSN or if you're eligible to get an SSN. You're eligible for an SSN if you're a U.S. citizen or if you have been admitted by the United States for permanent residence or U.S. employment.

To get an SSN, see Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card. To get Form SS-5 or to find out if you're eligible to get an SSN, go to www.socialsecurity.gov or contact a Social Security Administration (SSA) office.

If you have an application for an SSN pending, don't file Form W-7. Complete Form W-7 only if the SSA notifies you that you're ineligible for an SSN.

If the SSA will not issue you an SSN, you must get a letter of denial and attach it to your Form W-7. This applies whether you're attaching Form W-7 to your U.S. federal tax return or not. However, students, professors, and researchers, see information for box f, later.

Who Must Complete this Form

The following individuals must complete Form W-7.

1. Any individual who isn't eligible to get an SSN but who must furnish a taxpayer identification number must apply for an ITIN on Form W-7. Examples include the following.
 - A nonresident alien individual claiming reduced withholding under an applicable income tax treaty for which an ITIN is required (see Regulations section 1.1441-1(e)(4)(vii)(A)). Also see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.
 - A nonresident alien individual not eligible for an SSN who is required to file a U.S. federal tax return or who is filing a U.S. federal tax return only to claim a refund.
 - A nonresident alien individual not eligible for an SSN who elects to file a joint U.S. federal tax return with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.
 - A U.S. resident alien (based on the substantial presence test) who files a U.S. federal tax return but who isn't eligible for an SSN. For information about the substantial presence test, see Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.
 - An alien spouse claimed as an exemption on a U.S. federal tax return who isn't eligible to get an SSN.
 - An alien individual eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. federal tax return but who isn't eligible to get an SSN. To determine if an alien individual is eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. federal tax return, see Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, and Pub. 519.

- A nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher who is required to file a U.S. federal tax return but who isn't eligible for an SSN, or who is claiming an exception to the tax return filing requirement.
- A dependent/spouse of a nonresident alien U.S. visa holder, who isn't eligible for an SSN.

2. Persons who must renew their ITIN to file a U.S. federal tax return. See To renew your ITIN under How To Apply, and Do You Need To Renew Your ITIN, later.

CAUTION Only file Form W-7 if your ITIN needs to be renewed. See Pub. 1915, Understanding Your IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN), for more information.

Additional Information

For more information, visit www.irs.gov and enter "ITIN" in the search box.

Publications. See Pubs. 501, 515, 519, and 1915 for more information.

You can visit www.irs.gov/formspubs to download these publications as well as other forms at no cost. Otherwise, you can go to www.irs.gov/orderforms to order current and prior-year forms and instructions. Your order should arrive within 10 business days.

You can also call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) if you're in the United States to order forms and publications. If you have a foreign address, write to:

Telephone help. If, after reading these instructions and our free publications, you're not sure how to complete your application or have additional questions, call 1-800-829-1040 if you're in the United States. If you're outside the United States, call 267-941-1000 (not a toll-free number) for assistance.

Supporting Documentation Requirements

The documentation you provide must meet the following requirements.

1. You must submit documentation to establish your identity and your connection to a foreign country ("foreign status"). Applicants claimed as dependents must also prove U.S. residency unless the applicant is from Mexico or Canada or the applicant is a dependent of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas.

2. You must submit original documents, or certified copies of these documents from the issuing agency, that support the information provided on Form W-7. A certified document is one that the original issuing agency provides and certifies as an exact copy of the original document and contains an official stamped seal from the agency. You may be able to request a certified copy of documents at an embassy or consulate. However, services may vary between countries, so it is recommended that you contact the appropriate consulate or embassy for specific information.

TIP Original documents you submit will be returned to you at the mailing address shown on your Form W-7. You don't need to provide a return envelope. Applicants are permitted to include a prepaid Express Mail or courier envelope for faster return delivery of their documents. The IRS will then return the documents in the envelope provided by the applicant. If your original documents aren't returned within 60 days, you can call the IRS (see Telephone help, earlier). If you will need your documents for any purpose within 60 days of submitting your ITIN application, you may wish to apply in person at an IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center or CAA. See Where To Apply, later.

3. The documentation you provide must be current (that is, not expired).

There are 13 acceptable documents as shown in the table below. At least one document must contain your photograph, unless you're a dependent under age 14 (under age 18 if a student). Also, you may later be required to provide a certified translation of foreign-language documents.

Supporting Documentation	Can be used to establish:
	Foreign status	Identity
Passport (the only stand-alone document*)	x	x
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) photo identification	x	x
Visa issued by the U.S. Department of State	x	x
U.S. driver's license		x
U.S. military identification card		x
Foreign driver's license		x
Foreign military identification card	x	x
National identification card (must contain name, photograph, address, date of birth, and expiration date)	x	x
U.S. state identification card		x
Foreign voter's registration card	x	x
Civil birth certificate	x	x
Medical records (valid only for dependents under age 6)	x	x
School records (valid only for dependents under age 18 if a student)	x	x
* Applicants claimed as a dependent who need to prove U.S. residency must provide additional documentation if the passport does not have a date of entry into the United States. See Proof of U.S. residency for applicants who are dependents , below.
 May be used to establish foreign status only if documents are foreign.

If you submit an original passport or a certified copy from the issuing agency, you do not need to submit any other documents from the table.

Proof of U.S. residency for applicants who are dependents. Applicants claimed as dependents must also prove U.S. residency unless the applicant is from Mexico or Canada or the applicant is a dependent of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas. Effective October 1, 2016, a passport that doesn't have a date of entry will no longer be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for dependents, unless the dependents are from Mexico, Canada, or dependents of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas. Applicants will be required to submit (along with the supporting documentation listed above):

- If under 6 years of age: A U.S. medical record that lists the applicant's name and U.S. address.

– If under 18 years of age: A U.S. school record that lists the applicant's name and U.S. address.

– If 18 years of age or older: U.S. school records, rental statement, utility bill, or bank statement that lists the applicant's name and U.S. address.

If you check box d for a dependent of a U.S. citizen or resident alien, then you may submit an original valid passport (or a certified copy from the issuing agency) without any other documents to prove your "foreign status" or "identity" only if the passport has a U.S. date of entry. Otherwise, you must submit at least two of the documents listed in the chart above.

Additional Documentation Requirements

Civil birth certificate – Original documentation submitted for a dependent under age 18 must include a civil birth certificate (unless a passport is submitted). Civil birth certificates are considered current at all times because they do not contain an expiration date.

Passports and national identification cards – These documents will be considered current only if their expiration date has not passed prior to the date the Form W-7 is submitted.

Note: Certified copies of a passport from the issuing agency must include the U.S. visa pages if a visa is required for your Form W-7 application.

Medical records – Medical records will be accepted for dependents under 6 years of age. The medical record must contain the child's name, date of birth, and verifiable address. Shot/immunization records will be accepted only if they document the applicant's name and chronological dates of the applicant's medical history and care. In addition, the medical record must document the name, address, and phone number of the doctor, hospital, or clinic where treatment was last administered. If this information is not printed on the medical record, the medical record must be accompanied by a dated letter providing the required information on official letterhead from the federal authority, physician, hospital, or clinic that administered the latest care of the child. The medical record must be dated no more than 12 months from the date of the Form W-7 application. If a date of entry is required for the applicant, the medical record must be from a U.S. facility.

School records – School records will be accepted only if they are for a school term ending no more than 12 months from the date of the Form W-7 application. The school record must consist of an official report card or transcript issued by the school or the equivalent of a Ministry of Education. The school record must also be signed by a school official or ministry official. The record must be dated and contain the student's name, course work with grades (unless under age 6), date of grading period(s) (unless under age 6), and school name and address. If a date of entry is required for the applicant, the school record must be from a U.S. facility.

How To Apply

Follow the guidelines below if you're applying for a new ITIN or renewing an existing ITIN. To determine if you need to renew your ITIN, see Do You Need To Renew Your ITIN?, later.

Note: Keep a copy of your application for your records.

To receive an ITIN for the first time. If you've never had an ITIN before and are submitting an application for a new ITIN, include the following in your application package.

1. Your completed Form W-7.

Note: If you submit a Form W-7, all future ITIN notices and correspondence that you receive will be in English. If you prefer to receive them in Spanish, submit Form W-7(SP).

2. Your original tax return(s) for which the ITIN is needed. Attach Form W-7 to the front of your tax return. If you're applying for more than one ITIN for the same tax return (such as for a spouse or dependent(s)), attach all Forms W-7 to the same tax return. Leave the area of the SSN blank on the tax return for each person who is applying for an ITIN. After your Form W-7 has been processed, the IRS will assign an ITIN to the return and process the return.

There are exceptions to the requirement to include a U.S. federal tax return. If you claim one of these exceptions, you must submit the documentation required instead of a tax return. See Exceptions Tables, later.

3. Original documents, or certified copies of these documents from the issuing agency, required to support the information provided on Form W-7. The required supporting documentation must be consistent with the applicant's information provided on Form W-7. For example, the name, date of birth, and country(ies) of citizenship shown in the documentation must be the same as on Form W-7, lines 1a, 4, and 6a. See Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier, for a list of the documents that can be submitted along with your application package.

To renew your ITIN. If your ITIN is expiring or has expired and the ITIN will be included on a U.S. federal tax return, follow the guidelines below to submit your renewal application. Applications for renewal may be filed as early as October 1, 2016. If your ITIN will not be included on a U.S. federal tax return, you don't need to renew your ITIN at this time.

If you don't renew the expired ITIN and you file a U.S. federal tax return with the expired ITIN, there may be a delay in processing your tax return.

Include the following in your renewal application package.

1. Your completed Form W-7.
2. Original documentation, or certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency, required to support the information provided on Form W-7. The required supporting documentation must be consistent with the applicant's information provided on Form W-7. For example, the name, date of birth, and country(ies) of citizenship shown in the documentation must be the same as on Form W-7, lines 1a, 4, and 6a. See Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier, for a list of documentation that can be submitted along with your renewal package.

All family members listed on a tax return may renew their ITINs at the same time.

Certified copies. You can submit copies of original documents if you do any of the following.

- Have the copies certified by the issuing agency.
- Have the officers at U.S. Embassies and Consulates overseas provide certification and authentication services. Contact the Consular Section, American Citizens Services of the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in advance to determine the hours of operation for these services.

Deceased taxpayers. When requesting an ITIN for a deceased taxpayer, the deceased must meet all of the requirements established to get an ITIN. Also, you must write "Deceased" across the top of Form W-7 and include the documentation shown in the following chart.

IF you're:	THEN you must include:
The surviving spouse filing an original or amended joint return with your deceased spouse	- Form W-7, - A U.S. individual income tax return, and - Documentation substantiating the identity and foreign status of the deceased.
The court-appointed executor or administrator of the deceased's estate filing an original tax return on behalf of the deceased	- Form W-7, - A U.S. individual income tax return, - Documentation substantiating the identity and foreign status of the deceased*, and - A court certificate showing your appointment.
Neither the surviving spouse nor the court-appointed executor or administrator of the deceased's estate	- Form W-7, - A U.S. individual income tax return, - Documentation substantiating the identity and foreign status of the deceased*, - Form 1310 (if a refund is due), and - A copy of the certificate of death.
* If the Form W-7 is for a deceased individual under 18 years of age, one of the documents proving identity, foreign status, and/or U.S. residency must be a birth certificate, unless a passport is submitted.

ITIN not needed for Forms 4868, 1040-ES, or 1040-ES (NR).

If you're filing an application for an extension of time to file using Form 4868, or making an estimated tax payment using Form 1040-ES or Form 1040-ES (NR), don't file Form W-7 with those forms. Enter "ITIN TO BE REQUESTED" wherever your SSN or ITIN is requested. An ITIN will be issued only after you file a tax return and meet all other requirements.

If you attached your tax return to your Form W-7, leave the area of the SSN blank on the tax return for each person who is applying for an ITIN.

When To Apply

To receive an ITIN for the first time. If you're applying for a new ITIN, complete and attach Form W-7 to your tax return when you file the tax return for which the ITIN is needed. If you're unable to file your tax return by the due date, you must file an application for an extension of time to file. Failure to timely file the tax return with a complete Form W-7 and required documentation may result in the denial of refundable credits, such as the Child Tax Credit and the American Opportunity Tax Credit. See Where To Apply, later. Don't file your tax return without Form W-7.

If you meet one of the exceptions described in Exceptions Tables at the end of these instructions, you may complete and submit Form W-7 at any time.

You can't electronically file (e-file) a return using an ITIN in the calendar year the ITIN is assigned. If you need to file multiple year returns, you can attach them all to your Form W-7 and submit them to the IRS. Once your ITIN is assigned, you can e-file returns in the following years. For example, if you apply for and receive an ITIN in 2017, you may not e-file any tax return using that ITIN (including prior year returns) until 2018.

To renew your ITIN. If you're renewing an existing ITIN, you may submit your Form W-7 renewal application (without filing a tax return) as early as October 1, 2016. If you don't renew your expired ITIN and you file a U.S. federal tax return with the expired ITIN, there may be a delay in processing your tax return.

Where To Apply

By mail. Mail Form W-7, your tax return, if applicable (or other documents required by an exception), and the documentation described under Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier, to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operation
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

If you mail your application, don't use the mailing address in the instructions for your tax return.

By private delivery services. If you use a private delivery service, submit your Form W-7, your tax return, if applicable (or other documents required by an exception), and the documentation described under Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier, to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operation
3651 S. Interregional, Hwy 35
Mail Stop 6090-AUSC
Austin, TX 78741-0000

In person. Designated IRS Taxpayer Assistance Centers (TACs) can verify original documentation and certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency for primary and secondary applicants and their dependents. For dependents, TACs can verify passports, national identification cards, and birth certificates. These documents will be returned to you immediately. Service at TACs is by appointment only. Appointments can be scheduled by calling 1-844-545-5640. See www.irs.gov/uac/tac-locations-where-in-person-document-verification-is-provided for a list of designated TACs that offer ITIN document authentication service. TACs that don't offer ITIN document authentication service will mail the original documents, Form W-7, and tax return to the IRS Austin Service Center for processing.

Through an acceptance agent. You can also apply through one of the two types of acceptance agents authorized by the IRS.

1. Acceptance Agent (AA).
2. Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA).

Acceptance Agent (AA). An Acceptance Agent (AA) can help you complete and file Form W-7. To get a list of agents, visit IRS.gov and enter "acceptance agent program" in the search box. An AA will need to submit original documentation or certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency to the IRS for all applicants.

Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA). A Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA) can verify original documentation and certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency for primary and secondary applicants and their dependents. For dependents, CAAs can only verify passports and birth certificates. The CAA will return the documentation immediately after reviewing its authenticity.

Processing times. Allow 7 weeks for the IRS to notify you of your ITIN application status (9 to 11 weeks if you submit the application during peak processing periods (January 15 through April 30) or if you're filing from overseas). If you haven't received your ITIN or correspondence at the end of that time, you can call the IRS to find out the status of your application (see Telephone help, earlier).

Do You Need To Renew Your ITIN?

Follow the steps below to see if you need to renew your ITIN

Specific Instructions

If you're completing this form for someone else, answer the questions as they apply to that individual.

Application Type

Check the applicable box to indicate if you're:

1. a first-time applicant applying for a new ITIN, or
2. seeking to renew an ITIN that you already have.

If you check Renew an Existing ITIN, you must answer the question on line 6e and include your ITIN information on line 6f. See the instructions for lines 6e and 6f for more information.

Reason You're Submitting Form W-7

You must check the box to indicate the reason you're completing Form W-7 even if you're applying to renew your ITIN. If more than one box applies to you, check the box that best explains your reason for submitting Form W-7. A selection must be made in this section.

Note: If you check box a or f, then box h may also be checked. If applicable, you also must enter the treaty country and treaty article. For more information on treaties, see Pub. 901, U.S. Tax Treaties.

a. Nonresident alien required to get an ITIN to claim tax treaty benefit. Certain nonresident aliens must get an ITIN to claim certain tax treaty benefits even if they don't have to file a U.S. federal tax return. If you check this box to claim the benefits of a U.S. income tax treaty with a foreign country, also check box h. On the dotted line next to box h, enter the appropriate designation for Exception 1 or 2, whichever applies (see Exception 1 and Exception 2, later). Identify the exception by its number, alpha subsection, and category under which you're applying (for example, enter "Exception 1d-Pension Income" or "Exception 2d-Gambling Winnings"). Also, enter the name of the treaty country and treaty article number in the appropriate entry spaces below box h and attach the documents required under whichever exception applies. For more details on tax treaties, see Pub. 901.

b. Nonresident alien filing a U.S. federal tax return. This category includes:

- A nonresident alien who must file a U.S. federal tax return to report income effectively or not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, and
- A nonresident alien who is filing a U.S. federal tax return only to get a refund.

c. U.S. resident alien (based on days present in the United States) filing a U.S. federal tax return. A foreign individual living in the United States who doesn't have permission to work from the USCIS, and is thus ineligible for an SSN, may still be required to file a U.S. federal tax return. These individuals must check this box.

d. Dependent of U.S. citizen/resident alien. This is an individual who can be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. federal tax return and isn't eligible to get an SSN. Dependents of U.S. military personnel can submit original documents, certified copies or notarized copies of identification documents. A copy of the servicemember's U.S. military ID will be required or the applicant must be applying from an overseas APO/FPO address. A copy of the servicemember's U.S. military ID is required to be included with the application if the documents are notarized. If you're applying for an ITIN under this category, you must provide the full name and SSN or ITIN of the U.S. citizen/resident alien. Enter the information in the space provided.

Note: If you live abroad and requested an Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number (ATIN) for a foreign child you adopted or who has been legally placed in your home pending adoption and that request was denied, your dependent may be eligible for an ITIN. When submitting your Form W-7, make sure that you include a copy of the legal documents verifying your relationship to the child.

e. Spouse of U.S. citizen/resident alien. This category includes:

- A resident or nonresident alien spouse who isn't filing a U.S. federal tax return (including a joint return) and who isn't eligible to get an SSN but who, as a spouse, is claimed as an exemption; and
- A resident or nonresident alien electing to file a U.S. federal tax return jointly with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

Spouses of U.S. military personnel can submit original documents, certified copies or notarized copies of identification documents. A copy of the servicemember's U.S. military ID will be required or the applicant must be applying from an overseas APO/FPO address. A copy of the servicemember's U.S. military ID is required to be included with the application if the documents are notarized. If you're applying for an ITIN under this category, you must provide the full name and SSN or ITIN of the U.S. citizen/resident alien. Enter the information in the space provided.

f. Nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher filing a U.S. federal tax return or claiming an exception. This is an individual who hasn't abandoned his or her residence in a foreign country and who is a bona fide student, professor, or researcher coming temporarily to the United States solely to attend classes at a recognized institution of education, to teach, or to perform research.

If you check this box, you must complete lines 6c and 6g and provide your passport with a valid U.S. visa. If you're present in the United States on a work-related visa (F-1, J-1, or M-1), but will not be employed (that is, your presence in the United States is study-related), you can choose to attach a letter from the Designated School Official (DSO) or Responsible Officer (RO) instead of applying with the SSA for an SSN. The letter must clearly state that you will not be securing employment while in the United States and your presence here is solely study-related. This letter can be submitted instead of a Social Security denial letter if you're filing a tax return with this Form W-7 or claiming Exception 2 (explained later).

Nonresident alien students and exchange visitors, their spouses, and dependents under the Student Exchange Visitors Program (SEVP) claiming Exception 2 (no tax return attached) can have their original ID certified by an SEVP-approved institution, rather than mailing originals to the IRS. These are individuals admitted to the U.S. under an F, J, or M visa who receive taxable scholarships, fellowships, or other grants. See www.irs.gov for the procedures.

If you check this box to claim an exception under the benefits of a U.S. income tax treaty with a foreign country, also check box h. On the dotted line next to box h, enter the appropriate designation for Exception 2, explained later. Identify the exception by its number, alpha subsection, and category under which you're applying (for example, enter "Exception 2b-Scholarship Income and claiming tax treaty benefits" or "Exception 2c-Scholarship Income"). Also, enter the name of the treaty country and the treaty article number in the appropriate entry spaces below box h (if applicable) and attach the documents required under Exception 2.

g. Dependent/spouse of a nonresident alien holding a U.S. visa. This is an individual who can be claimed as a dependent or a spouse on a U.S. federal tax return, who is unable, or not eligible, to get an SSN, and who has entered the United States with a nonresident alien who holds a U.S. visa. If you apply for an ITIN under this category, remember to attach a copy of your visa to your Form W-7.

h. Other. If the reason for your ITIN request isn't described in boxes a through g, check this box. Describe in detail your reason for requesting an ITIN and attach supporting documents.

Frequently, third parties (such as banks and other financial institutions) that are subject to information reporting and withholding requirements will request an ITIN from you to enable them to file information returns required by law. If you're requesting an ITIN for this reason, you may be able to claim one of the exceptions described later. Enter on the dotted line next to box h the exception that applies to you. Identify the exception by its number, alpha subsection (if applicable), and category under which you're applying (for example, enter "Exception 1a-Partnership Income" or "Exception 3-Mortgage Interest"). Examples of completed Forms W-7 can be found in Pub. 1915. You will not need to attach a tax return to your Form W-7.

Exception 1. Passive income—third-party withholding or tax treaty benefits. This exception may apply if you're the recipient of partnership income, interest income, annuity income, rental income, or other passive income that is subject to third-party withholding or covered by tax treaty benefits. See Exceptions Tables, later, for more details on Exception 1.

Information returns applicable to Exception 1 may include the following.

- Form 1042-S, Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding.
- Form 1099-INT, Interest Income.
- Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income.
- Form 8805, Foreign Partner's Information Statement of Section 1446 Withholding Tax.
- Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Partner's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc.

Applicants receiving compensation for personal services performed in the United States, or issued a U.S. visa that is valid for employment, should first apply for an SSN with the SSA. Unless you're denied an SSN by the SSA and attach the denial letter to your Form W-7, you aren't eligible for an ITIN.

If you're required to file a tax return, then you aren't eligible for Exception 1.

Exception 2. Other income. This exception may apply if:

1. You're claiming the benefits of a U.S. income tax treaty with a foreign country and you receive any of the following:
 - a. Wages, salary, compensation, and honoraria payments;
 - b. Scholarships, fellowships, and grants; and/or
 - c. Gambling income; or
2. You're receiving taxable scholarship, fellowship, or grant income, but not claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty.

See Exceptions Tables, later, for more details on Exception 2. Information returns applicable to Exception 2 may include Form 1042-S.

Exception 3. Mortgage interest—third-party reporting. This exception may apply if you have a home mortgage loan on real property you own in the United States that is subject to third-party reporting of mortgage interest. See Exceptions Tables, later, for more details on Exception 3. Information returns applicable to Exception 3 may include Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement.

Exception 4. Dispositions by a foreign person of U.S. real property interest—third-party withholding. This exception may apply if you're a party to a disposition of a U.S.

real property interest by a foreign person, which is generally subject to withholding by the transferee or buyer (withholding agent). See Exceptions Tables, later, for more details on Exception 4.

Information returns applicable to Exception 4 may include the following.

- Form 8288, U.S. Withholding Tax Return for Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests.
- Form 8288-A, Statement of Withholding on Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests.
- Form 8288-B, Application for Withholding Certificate for Dispositions by Foreign Persons of U.S. Real Property Interests.

Exception 5. Treasury Decision (TD) 9363. This exception may apply if you have an IRS reporting requirement under TD 9363 and are submitting Form W-7 with Form 13350, Registration for e-services. See Exceptions Tables, later, for more details on Exception 5.

Line Instructions

Enter "N/A" (not applicable) on all sections of each line that don't apply to you. Don't leave any section blank. For example, line 4 should have three separate entries.

Line 1a. Enter your legal name on line 1a as it appears on your identifying documents. This entry should reflect your name as it will appear on a U.S. federal tax return.

Your ITIN will be established using this name. If you don't use this name on the U.S. federal tax return, the processing of the U.S. federal tax return may be delayed.

Line 1b. Enter your name as it appears on your birth certificate if it's different from your entry on line 1a.

Line 2. Enter your complete mailing address on line 2. This is the address the IRS will use to return your original documents and send written notification of your ITIN application status.

The IRS will not use the address you enter to update its records for other purposes unless you include a U.S. federal tax return with your Form W-7. If you are not including a U.S. federal tax return with your Form W-7 and you changed your home mailing address since you filed your last U.S. federal tax return, also file Form 8822, Change of Address, with the IRS at the address listed in the Form 8822 instructions.

Note: If the U.S. Postal Service will not deliver mail to your physical location, enter the U.S. Postal Service's post office box number for your mailing address. Contact your local U.S. Post Office for more information. Don't use a post office box owned and operated by a private firm or company.

Line 3. Enter your complete foreign (non-U.S.) address in the country where you permanently or normally reside if it's different from the address on line 2. If the foreign address on line 3 is the same as the mailing address on line 2, enter "SAME" on line 3. If you no longer have a permanent residence due to your relocation to the United States, enter only the foreign country where you last resided on line 3. If you're claiming a benefit under an income tax treaty with the United States, the income tax treaty country must be the same as the country listed on line 3.

Don't use a post office box or an "in care of" (c/o) address instead of a street address on line 2 if you're entering just a "country" name on line 3. If you do, your application may be rejected.

Line 4. Enter your date of birth in MM/DD/YYYY format, where MM = 1 to 12 and DD = 1 to 31. To be eligible for an ITIN, your birth country must be recognized as a foreign country by the U.S. Department of State.

Line 6a. Enter the country or countries (in the case of dual citizenship) in which you're a citizen. Enter the complete country name; don't abbreviate.

Line 6b. If your country of residence for tax purposes has issued you a tax identification number, enter that number on line 6b. For example, if you're a resident of Canada, enter your Canadian Social Security number.

Line 6c. Enter only U.S. nonimmigrant visa information. Include the USCIS classification, number of the U.S. visa, and the expiration date in month/day/year format. For example, if you have an F-1/F-2 visa with the number 123456 that has an expiration date of December 31, 2018, enter "F-1/F-2," "123456," and "12/31/2018" in the entry space. Individuals in possession of an I-20/I-94 document(s) should attach a copy to their Form W-7.

Line 6d. Check the box indicating the type of document(s) you're submitting to prove your identity and foreign status, and if required, U.S. residency. You must submit documents as explained under Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier. Enter the name of the state or country or other issuer, the identification number (if any) appearing on the document(s), the expiration date, and the date on which you entered the United States. Dates must be entered in the month/day/year format.

Note: If you're submitting a passport, or a certified copy of a passport from the issuing agency, no other documentation is required to prove your identity and foreign status. Ensure any visa information shown on the passport is entered on line 6c and the pages of the passport showing the U.S. visa (if a visa is required for your Form W-7) are included with your Form W-7. Effective October 1, 2016, a passport that doesn't have a date of entry will no longer be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for dependents, unless the dependents are from Mexico, Canada, or dependents of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas.

If you're submitting more than one document, enter only the information for the first document on this line. Attach a separate sheet showing the required information for the additional document(s). On the separate sheet, be sure to write your name and "Form W-7" at the top.

The "Date of entry into the United States" must contain the complete date on which you entered the country for the purpose for which you're requesting an ITIN (if applicable). If you've never entered the United States, enter "Never entered the United States" on this line. A passport without an entry date does not prove U.S. residency and may not be used as a stand-alone document for certain dependents. See Supporting Documentation Requirements, earlier.

Example. You entered the United States on August 1, 2016, to work for Company X. You want to file a return for the income you earned in the United States in 2016. You aren't eligible to get a social security number. You file Form W-7 with your 2016 return. Enter "08/01/2016" on line 6d of Form W-7.

Line 6e. If you ever received an ITIN and/or an Internal Revenue Service Number (IRSIN), check the "Yes" box and complete line 6f. If you never had an ITIN or an IRSIN, or if you don't know your ITIN or IRSIN, check the No/Don't know box.

An IRSIN is a nine-digit number issued by the IRS to persons who file a return or make a payment without providing a TIN. You would've been issued this number if you filed a U.S. federal tax return and didn't have an SSN. This IRSIN will appear on any correspondence the IRS sent you concerning that return.

If you're submitting Form W-7 to renew your ITIN, you must include your previously assigned ITIN on line 6f to avoid delays in processing your Form W-7.

Line 6f. If you have both an ITIN and/or an IRSIN, list them in the space(s) provided. Identify your first, middle, and last name under which the ITIN and/or IRSIN was issued. If you were issued more than one IRSIN, attach a separate sheet listing all the IRSINs you received. On the separate sheet, be sure to write your name and "Form W-7" at the top.

If you're submitting Form W-7 to renew your ITIN, the name under which you applied for your ITIN must be included on line 6f to avoid delays in processing your Form W-7.

Note: If you're renewing your ITIN and your legal name has changed since the original assignment of your ITIN, you'll need to submit documentation to support your legal name change, such as your marriage certificate or a court order, which may include a divorce decree. Attach supporting documentation to Form W-7.

Line 6g. If you checked reason f, you must enter the name of the educational institution and the city and state in which it is located. You also must enter your length of stay in the United States.

If you're temporarily in the United States for business purposes, you must enter the name of the company with whom you're conducting your business and the city and state in which it is located. You also must enter your length of stay in the United States.

Signature

Who Can Sign Form W-7

Generally, the applicant is required to sign Form W-7. The following are exceptions to this requirement.

Applicant is a dependent under 18 years of age. If the applicant is a dependent under 18 years of age, his or her parent or court-appointed guardian can sign if the child cannot. The parent or court-appointed guardian must type or print his or her name in the space provided and check the appropriate box that indicates his or her relationship to the applicant. If the individual is signing as a court-appointed guardian, a copy of the court-appointment papers showing the legal guardianship must be attached.

Adults, other than a parent or court-appointed guardian, can sign Form W-7 only if a Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, has been signed by a parent or court-appointed guardian authorizing the individual to sign for the applicant.

Applicant is a dependent 18 years of age or older. If the applicant is 18 years of age or older, the applicant can sign or can appoint his or her parent, a court-appointed guardian, or another individual to sign. The person signing, if other than the applicant, must type or print his or her name in the space provided, check the appropriate box that indicates his or her relationship to the applicant, and attach a Form 2848.

Applicant can't sign their name. If an applicant can't sign their name, then they must sign their mark (for example, an "X" or a thumbprint) in the presence of a witness. The witness's signature is also required and must be identified as that of a witness.

Note: All Powers of Attorney (POA) submitted to the IRS must be in English. Any POAs received in a foreign language will be considered invalid unless accompanied by a certified English translation. The POA must clearly state the purpose for which it is intended under the "Acts authorized" section. For more information, go to IRS.gov.
